

Students of the State University “Cyril and Methodius” announced a peaceful protest for today at noon in front of the EU seat building downtown Skopje. Students will express their dissatisfaction from the latest decision of the EU Council of Ministers not to grant Macedonia a date for negotiations for access into the European Union.